THIS MONTH IN AMERICAN REVOLUTION HISTORY

The Burning of Norfolk was an incident that occurred on January 1, 1776, during the American Revolutionary War. British Royal Navy ships in the harbor of Norfolk, Virginia began shelling the town, and landing parties came ashore to burn specific properties. The town, whose significantly Tory (Loyalist) population had fled, was occupied by Whig (Revolutionary) forces from Virginia and North Carolina. Although these forces worked to drive off the landing parties, they did nothing to impede the progress of the flames, and began burning and looting Tory properties. REVOLUTIONARY WAR QUOTE

"The powers delegated by the proposed Constitution to the federal government are few and defined. Those which are to remain in the State governments are numerous and indefinite." – James Madison Federalist Papers, No. 45, January 26, 1788

Awards Report:

- Compatriot Charles Lilly pointed out the need for a Chairman of the Awards committee, pointing out that Vice President Koechig has had that role for quite some time and needs relief. Charles pointed out that anniversary awards are given out in 5-year increments. Marvin then went into the duties and responsibilities of such a position, pointing out that anniversary awards and pins were available other than 25-year pins, which is trying to obtain. The awards are given for SAR anniversaries, and the public service awards include heroism, law enforcement, fire department, and life savings.

Old Business:

- Vice President Marvin Koechig under old business pointed out that, over time, thousands of flag code manuals have been given out to new citizens of the United States when they take their office. This is a joint project between the Saint Charles DAR Chapter and Fernando De Leyba.

New Business:

- President Jim Jackson announced a new project for the Chapter and its members. Once per month we will try and publish a Patriot of the Month from a chapter members genealogy. Submissions in a story form can be made to Secretary Dan Evans who will distribute them to the officers for consideration. Beyond patriotic service, President Jackson pointed out that one of the things that is to be noted was the Pioneer Spirit and the dispersion of Patriots from the colonies after the war, settling our new nation. All who participate in this project will be recognized monthly, even if their patriot is not selected for that month.
- Compatriot Charles Lilly announced that for the year 2019 - 2020. This award is only eligible to be received by a chapter every other year. Our chapter was also the recipient of this award for the year 2017 - 2018.

Program –President Jim Jackson stated that no program will be presented at the meeting but the link sent to members on February 4th of the YouTube video entitled “The American Form Of Government” will serve as the program for the meeting.
