

The Fernando de Leyba Chapter, Missouri Society, Sons of the American Revolution

The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution is an organization of male descendents of those Patriots who served in uniform during the Revolutionary War or rendered aid to the founding of the United States of America during the Revolutionary period.

The Fernando de Leyba Chapter, MOSSAR is comprised of Compatriots in the East Central MO area. It is named for Captain Fernando de Leyba. He commanded a small garrison at a hastily erected Fort San Carlos in St. Louis.

Fernando de Leyba was also the lieutenant-governor of Louisiana. He was sent to St. Louis to govern the administrative center of Northern Louisiana.

Fort San Carlos was attacked on May 28, 1780 by British and Native Americans. It was successfully defended by the Spanish Garrison and local militia, led by Captain de Leyba. This victory prevented the British from gaining control of the Mississippi Valley.

The Society Strongly Encourages Patriotism, History and Education.

The SAR welcomes inquiries and applications for membership.

While membership in the SAR is for adults 18 years or older, eligible youth may join the Children of the American Revolution.

Robert E. Burt Boy Scout Volunteer Award

The Robert E. Burt Boy Scout Volunteer Award is the award for scouters of the Sons of the American Revolution. It is an honor due to members of the SAR who act as role models and provide dedicated service to the young men in the Boys Scouts of America (BSA).

The award is presented to members of the SAR in good standing who are currently active in a scout unit, district, or council or members who have displayed outstanding dedication to the Scouting Program. Work accomplishment and dedication rather than a specific number of years in Scouting is the criteria for this award.

Eagle Scout Recognition and Award Program

For many years the SAR has recognized the many common bonds of purpose and principles of the SAR and Boy Scouts of America.

Young men who achieve the rank of the Eagle Scout have demonstrated their belief in these common principles. For this reason, the SAR believes that Eagle Scouts deserve special recognition for their accomplishment and dedication.

The SAR Eagle Scout Award Contest is open to all Eagle Scouts who are currently registered in an active unit and have not reached their 19th birthday during the year of application. (The application year is the calendar year, 01 Jan. to 31 Dec.). The year that the Eagle was awarded is not restricted. College plans do not need to be completed in order to receive the cash award.

Three annual cash awards are given:
(effective 2016-2018)

National First Place winner - $10,000

Runner-up - $6,000

2nd Runner-up - $4,000

You may apply more than one year if you meet the age requirements but no more than $10,000 total may be granted to any one Eagle Scout.

The SAR and the Boy Scouts participate in many activities together. Scouts of all ages can help during SAR parades and ceremonies including grave markings and Revolutionary War battle ceremonies. SAR members contribute to Scouting activities by teaching relevant merit badges, such as American Heritage, Genealogy, Law, Citizenship in the Community, Citizenship in the Nation, and Citizenship in the World.
